Instructions

Updated: 9/2026

Purpose

To provide Supplemental Security Income (SSI) recipients:

- notification that their Medicaid benefits are denied due to the denial of their SSI benefits;
- information on potential eligibility for Medicaid without SSI;
- instructions on how to apply for other types of Medicaid;
- contact information for the Social Security Administration (SSA) if they want to appeal the SSA's decision; and
- contact information for legal advice.

Procedures

When to Prepare

The eligibility system automatically prints and sends document, Notice of SSI Medicaid Ending to the SSI recipient. This is done when the SSA notifies Texas Health and Human Services (HHS) that an SSI recipient's benefits are denied or suspended. The document has the last day of Medicaid coverage for the SSI recipient at the top of the notice. This is a system generated document. It is printed with a cover sheet that has the SSI recipient's name, address, case number, and the date the notice was printed.

Note: The eligibility system does not generate Notice of SSI Medicaid Ending if the SSI recipient is deceased.

Number of Copies

Every SSI recipient denied Medicaid receives one copy.

Transmittal

The eligibility system sends Notice of SSI Medicaid Ending to the SSI recipient. The SSI recipient is advised by the document of their Medicaid denial and of the requirements for continued Medicaid coverage.
